

CORPORATE WELLNESS

Innovate your workplace to create a culture of wellness

We bring our services right to your office or reserve our space for your next corporate event.

Wellness studies have shown that companies who adopt a wellness program have been known to improve productivity, decrease absenteeism, improve recruitment and retention, and sustain a high employee morale. IV hydration therapy offers a boost of energy, improved immunity, and aids recovery during travel, stressful environments and long hours worked. There's no better investment than in a culture of health and wellness.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

- ✓ Meet with our wellness coordinator at your office or downtown at our hydration lounge.
- ✓ Together we will curate a customized wellness plan based on your company's needs.
- ✓ Let us take care of the logistics - our team will come to your office so you and your employees can take advantage of the health and wellness benefits of IV therapy.

WHY HYDRATE YOUR TEAM

IVitamin is a great addition to your corporate wellness program, offering your employees a way to adopt and maintain healthy behaviors. Literature has shown healthy behaviors lead to lower health risks, and lower health risks lead to less chronic disease.
